Statement

Criteria for allotment of telephones on priority basis and temporary basis.

Parmanent telephone connections can be sanctioned on priority basis to provide traffic relief to heavy callers, or due to an area change in multi-exchange telephone system when the 'main telephone' or its 'external extension' is involved in the area transfer. Heads of Telecommunications Circles and Telephone Districts can also sanction telephones in deserving cases on merits at their discretion from the 'OYT-Special' and 'Non OYT-SS' priority categories. Members of Telecom/Telephone Advisory. Committees also recommend sanction of telephones on out-of turn basis from 'OYT-General' and 'Non-OYT-Special' categories at the time of bulk release. Other deserving cases can be sanctioned from the Headquarters office on out-of-term priority basis.

Temporary telephone connections are provided to individuals on medical grounds at the residential premises and to meet immediate requirements of Government Departments, industry, exporters, foreign exchange earners etc. Temporary telephone connections can be provided subject to the availability of cable pairs and exchange capacity.
